MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 18th March 1964

G.S.R. 522.—The President is pleased to sanction with effect from the 1st March 1964 the redesignation of the post of Assistant Director General of Civil Defence, (Communications) in the Ministry of Home Affairs, as Assistant Director General of Civil Defence, Ministry of Home Affairs.

[No. 9/15/64-ER.]

C. L. GOYAL, Under Secy.

New Delhi, the 23rd March 1964

The Central Secretariat Service Section Officers' Grade Limited Departmental Competitive Examination Regulations, 1964.

G.S.R. 523.—In pursuance of the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2 of the Fourth Schedule to the Central Secretariat Service Rules, 1962, the Ministry of Home Affairs, in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short Title.—These Regulations may be called the Central Secretariat Service Section Officers' Grade Limited Departmental Competitive Examination Regulations, 1964.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "crucial date" means the first day of July of the year in which the examination is held;
- (b) "examination" means a limited departmental competitive examination held by the Commission for making additions to the Select List for the Section Officers' Grade;
- (c) "selection" means inclusion in the Select List for the Section Officers' Grade.

(2) All other words and expressions used in these regulations and not defined herein shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Central Secretariat Service Rules, 1962.

3. Holding of the Examination.—(1) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

(2) The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.

4. Conditions of Eligibility.—Any permanent or temporary officer of the Assistants' Grade of the Central Secretariat Service or of Grade II of the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service who, on the crucial date, satisfies the following conditions, shall be eligible to appear at the examination:—

- (1) Length of service.—He should have rendered a continuous service of not less than five years and not more than ten years in any one or, as the case may be, more than one, of the following posts, namely:—
  - (i) Assistant (C.S.S.).
  - (ii) Stenographer (C.S.S.), Grade II
  - (iii) Stenographer (C.S.S.), Grade III.
  - (iv) any other post, under the Central Government or a State Government, the minimum and the maximum of the scale of pay of which were not less than rupees 160 and rupees 450 respectively in the case of a post held prior to 1st July 1959 and Rs. 210 and rupees 530 respectively in the case of a post held on or after 1st July 1959
- (2) Age.—He should not be more than 40 years of age:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of such categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf from time to time, by the Ministry of Home Affairs, to the extent notified in respect of each category.

- (3) Attempts at the examination.—Unless covered by any of the exceptions notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time in this behalf, he should not have already competed more than twice at the examinations held after the 1st January 1963.
- (4) Fees.—Subject to such exemptions or concessions or both, as may be notified in this behalf by the Ministry of Home Affairs, from time to time he shall pay the fees prescribed by the Commission.

NOTE 1.—Assistant/Stenographers who are on deputation to ex-cadre posts with the approval of the competent authority will be eligible to be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible.

NOTE 2.—Assistants of the Central Secretariat Service and Stenographers of the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service who have opted for appointment to the Indian Foreign Service (B) and have been appointed to any grade of that Service in pursuance of such option shall not be eligible for admission to the examination.

NOTE 3.—In the case of a Scheduled Caste Assistant given ad hoc promotion with the benefit of "deemed" date of promotion during the period 14th April 1952 to 30th April 1954 his actual date of promotion as Assistant will be taken into consideration for computing the length of service in the Assistants' Grade for the purpose of this regulation.

5. Canvassing for Candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to Eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission in their discretion to be suitable for selection on the results of any examination held after the commencement of these Regulations shall be arranged in the order of merit and recommended for selection in that order upto the required number.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion.

8. Selection.—(1) Success in the examination confers no right to selection unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is eligible and suitable in all respects for selection:

Provided that the decision as to ineligibility for selection in the case of any candidate recommended for selection by the Commission shall be taken in consultation with the Commission.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of this regulation, selection on the results of any examination held after the commencement of these Regulations shall be made to the extent required, in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission.

9. Penalty for Impersonation or other Misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall may, in addition to criminal prosecution to which he may render himself liable,—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period by the Commission, from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules.

New Delhi, the 25th March 1964

G.S.R. 526.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following rules further to amend the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Amendment Rules 1964.

2. In the All India Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules, 1958, (hereinafter referred to as the said Rules).

(1) for rule 6 the following rule shall be substituted namely:—

"6. Recovery from pension.—(1) The Central Government reserves to itself the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, whether permanently or for a specified period, and the right of ordering the recovery from pension of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Central or a State Government, if the pensioner is found in a departmental or judicial proceeding to have been guilty of grave misconduct or to have caused pecuniary loss to the Central or a State Government by misconduct or negligence, during his service, including service rendered on re-employment after retirement:

Provided that—

- (a) such departmental proceeding, if instituted while the pensioner was in service, whether before his retirement or during his re-employment, shall, after the final retirement of the pensioner, be deemed to be a proceeding under this sub-rule and shall be continued and concluded by the authority by which it was commenced in the same manner as if the pensioner had continued in service;
- (b) such departmental proceeding, if not instituted while the pensioner was in service, whether before his retirement or during his re-employment,—
  - (i) shall not be instituted save with the sanction of the Central Government;
  - (ii) shall be in respect of an event which took place not more than four years before the institution of such proceeding; and
  - (iii) shall be conducted by such authority and in such place or places as the Central Government may direct and in accordance with the procedure applicable to proceedings on which an order of dismissal from service may be made;
- (c) such judicial proceeding, if not instituted while the pensioner was in service, whether before his retirement or during his re-employment, shall not be instituted in respect of a cause of action which arose or an event which took place more than four years before such institution.

Explanation—For the purposes of this rule—

- (a) a departmental proceeding shall be deemed to be instituted, when the charges framed against the pensioner are issued to him or, if he has been placed under suspension from an earlier date, on which date; and
- (b) a judicial proceeding shall be deemed to be instituted—
  - (i) in the case of criminal proceedings, on the date on which a complaint is made or a charge-sheet is submitted, to the criminal court; and
  - (ii) in the case of civil proceedings, on the date on which the plaint is presented or, as the case may be, an application is made, to a civil court.
- (2) Where any departmental or judicial proceeding is instituted under sub-rule (1), or where a departmental proceeding is continued under clause (a) of the proviso thereto against an officer who has retired on attaining the age of compulsory retirement or otherwise, he shall be paid during the period commencing from the date of his retirement to the date on which, upon conclusion of such proceeding, final orders are passed, a provisional pension not exceeding the maximum pension which would have been admissible on the basis of his qualifying service upto the date of retirement, or if he was under suspension on the date of retirement, upto the date immediately preceding the date on which he was placed under suspension; but no gratuity or death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be paid to him until the conclusion of such proceeding and the issue of final orders thereon.
- (3) Payment of provisional pension made under sub-rule (2) shall be adjusted against the final retirement benefits sanctioned to the pensioner upon conclusion of the aforesaid proceeding, but no recovery shall be made where the pension finally sanctioned is less than the provisional pension or the pension is reduced or withheld either permanently or for a specified period.

NOTE.—The grant of pension under this rule shall not prejudice the operation of rule 20 of these Rules, when final pension is sanctioned upon conclusion of the proceeding”;

(2) in rule 16, sub-rule (2) shall be omitted and sub-rule (3) shall be re-numbered as sub-rule (2).

New Delhi, the 20th March 1964

G.S.R. 551.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following further amendments in the rules regulating the recruitment to the Central Engineering Service (Roads) of the Ministry of Transport & Communications, Department of Transport (Roads Wing), Class I, published with this Ministry's Notification No. G.S.R. 1558, dated the 20th December 1960.

Amendments

(1) The existing para 5 shall be substituted by the following:—

“A candidate must be either:—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
- (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been granted by the Government and if he belongs to category (f), the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment, beyond which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian Citizenship.

Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Person who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have not themselves registered as citizens under Article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) above who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, viz., 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour by the Government."

(2) The existing sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) of the Note under paragraph 7 shall be deleted and subsequent sub-clauses renumbered as (ii), (iii) and (iv).

MINISTRY OF WORKS, HOUSING AND REHABILITATION.

(Department of W. & H.)

(Central Boilers Board)

New Delhi, the 4th April 1964

G.S.R. 562.—The following draft of certain regulations further to amend the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, which the Central Boilers Board proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923 (5 of 1923), is published as required by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the said Act, for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 30th April, 1964.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be considered by the Central Boilers Board. Such objections or suggestions should be addressed to the Secretary, Central Boilers Board, Ministry of Works, Housing and Rehabilitation (Department of Works and Housing), North Block, New Delhi.

Draft Regulations

These regulations may be called the Indian Boiler (Amendment) Regulations, 1964.

In the Indian Boiler Regulations, 1950, in regulation 290,—

(i) for the first sentence in the second paragraph of clause (b), the following sentence shall be substituted, namely:—

“The working pressure of the chests shall be determined by equation 91 or 91A, whichever is applicable, where the term ‘2 Se’ shall be substituted by the term ‘1.8 S.’”

(ii) for clause (c), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

“(c) The working pressure or the thickness of chests shall be determined by the following formulae subject to the minimum thickness as specified in regulation 283(b).

$$WP = \frac{S \times (t - C)}{5 \times D} \dots \dots \dots \text{Eqn.} \quad (76)$$

$$\text{Where, } t = \frac{5 \times WP \times D}{S} + C \dots \dots \dots \text{Eqn.} \quad (77)$$

S is the minimum tensile strength for the grade of material.

D is the external diameter of the chest.

t is the minimum thickness of the chest excluding tolerance.

C is the minimum positive tolerance as specified hereunder:—

For bronze chests	C=1.5 mm or 0.06 in
„ cast iron chests	C=5 mm or 0.20 in
„ cast steel chests	C=5 mm or 0.20 in

(iii) after clause (c), the following clause shall be added as clause (d), namely:—

(d) For chests made of cast steel, for service temperatures exceeding 290 degrees C. (554 degrees F.), the working pressure as calculated by equation 76, shall be multiplied by a factor as given below:—

315°C	(600°F)	—	0.90
345°C	(653°F)	—	0.80
375°C	(707°F)	—	0.75
405°C	(761°F)	—	0.71
435°C	(815°F)	—	0.66
454°C	(850°F)	—	0.63

Intermediate values may be inter-polated".

[No. BL-9(14)/63-S&PIL.]

CORRIGENDUM

New Delhi, the 4th April 1964

G.S.R. 563. In the Central Boilers Board's notification No. 61, dated the 23rd December, 1963, published in the Gazette of India, Part II—Section 3, Sub-section (1), dated the 11th January, 1954 (pages 78-79),

1. in the FIG. 25-B,

(i) in the NOTE, for "AREA V" read "AREA Y";

(ii) correct the length  $C_1$  indicated therein by the arrow headed line so that it terminates at the point where it intersects the vertical dotted line;

2. for the portion beginning with the words and letter "Sectional area X" and ending with the words "the permissible stress for the material of the standpipe or nozzle at the working metal temperature." read "Sectional area X = [  $d_n \times e_s$  ]

$$\text{Sectional area Y} = 2 \left( t_n - e_n \right) b \times \frac{f_n}{f_s} + 2 t_n \times b \times \frac{f_n}{f_s} + 2 \left( t_s - e_s \right) C_1 + C_w$$

Where

$d_n$  = internal diameter of the standpipe or nozzle.

$t_s$  = actual thickness of shell.

$t_n$  = actual thickness of standpipe or nozzle.

$e_s$  = equivalent thickness of shell i.e. thickness of a seamless shell of similar material unpierced by tube holes and is designed for the same conditions of pressure and temperature as the shell in question.

$e_n$  = equivalent thickness of the standpipe calculated similarly as for  $e_s$  plus any thickness if required to withstand any external load on the standpipe or nozzle.

$b$  = the least of the values of

2.5 times  $t_s$ ,

2.5 times  $t_n$ or if the length of the standpipe or nozzle outside or inside the shell is less than this value, 'b' shall be limited to the actual length in each case.

$C_w$  = the aggregate cross sectional area of the fillet welds.

$C_T = t_s + 76\text{mm (3 in.) or } \frac{d_n}{2}$

$f_s$  = the permissible stress for the material of the shell at the working metal temperature.

$f_n$  = the permissible stress for the material of the standpipe or nozzle at the working metal temperature."

A. M. KULSHRESTHA, Under Secy.

DEPARTMENT OF POSTS & TELEGRAPHS

(Posts & Telegraphs Board)

New Delhi, the 25th March 1964

S.O. 566.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Telegraph Engineering Service (Class I) Rules, 1960, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Telegraph Engineering Service (Class I) Amendment Rules, 1964.

2. In the Telegraph Engineering Service (Class I) Rules, 1960:—

(a) for rule 6, the following rule shall be substituted namely:—

"6. Persons eligible for examination.—(1) A candidate must be either:—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
- (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India, before 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India;

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been granted by the Government and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment, beyond which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian Citizenship.

NOTE.—Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948, and have got themselves registered as citizens under article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) above who entered service under the Government of India before the 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then without a break. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

(2) A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour by the Government.

(b) In the Note below rule 8:—

(i) existing clauses (ii) and (iii) shall be omitted and existing clause (iv) shall be renumbered as clause (ii);

(ii) for existing clauses (iv) and (v) the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

"(iii) Upto a maximum of four years if a candidate belongs to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands,

(iv) Upto a maximum of three years if a candidate is an Indian citizen and is a repatriate from Ceylon.

(v) Upto a maximum of three years if a candidate is a resident of the former Portuguese Territories of Goa, Daman and Diu in India."

- (c) for N.B.—(ii) below rule 8, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"N.B.—(ii) A candidate who, after submitting his application to his department, is transferred to other department/office, will be eligible to compete under departmental age concession for the service, for which he would have been eligible, but for his transfer, provided his application, duly recommended, has been forwarded by his parent department."

- (d) for Notes 1 and 2 below Rule 9, the following Notes shall be substituted, namely:—

"Note 1.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination."

Note 2.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such a candidate will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if he does not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination."

- (e) in rule 11, after the words, 'or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination' the words "or of misbehaviour in the examination hall", shall be inserted.

- (f) for rule 12, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"12. Attempt to obtain support for candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for admission."

- (g) in rule 13, for the first sentence, the following sentence shall be substituted, viz:—

"Candidates must pay the fees prescribed in Appendix—III."

- (h) in rule 15, in the first paragraph, the words "at their own discretion" shall be omitted;

- (i) in Appendix-II, for paragraph 4, the following paragraph shall be substituted, namely:—

"4. The Commission will summon at their discretion only such candidates as they consider suitable for interview for a Personality Test."

- (j) in Appendix-III,—

- (i) in paragraph 2, for the words "Once an application has been considered by the Commission and the decision communicated to the candidate, no claim" the words "Once an application has been considered by the Commission and their decision admitting a candidate to the examination communicated to him, no claim" shall be substituted;

- (ii) paragraph 3 shall be omitted.
